Refugees Caught in Midst of Flaming Forest Perish in Fire—Whole Country Devastated.

ALPENA, Mich., Oct. 16.—Trapped on every side by raging forest fires, a relief train carrying women and children refugees from the devastated town of Metz dashed into a burned-out culvert early to-day and was wrecked.

Unable to escape, seventeen hapless victims were slowly roasted to death as the roaring flames leaped over the track and engulfed the cars in a seething maelstrom of fire.

Two only escaped from cremation in the fiery furnace and brought the news of the fearful disaster to the outside world.

Crawl Through Fire Escape.
Conductor Kivitt and Engineer Foster, crawling on their hands and knees, made their way to Foster's smoking railroad car and blundering rats. Both men are nearly dead as the result of their terrible ordeal.

Fifteen Skulls in Gondola.
It is impossible to learn the names of the dead. The fireman, Arthur Lee, was burned to death. Fifteen other skulls were found in a steel gondola. A woman was also found in the steel gondola.

Crushed Under Train.
The train, composed of ten cars, was wrecked and tipped over, impeding several of the passengers.

LIST PUBLISHED SUNDAY

THERE ARE FIVE NEW LEADERS TO-DAY IN FIVE DISTRICTS. This means that five former leaders have been overtaken in the vote by other candidates and forced back into the procession. Should these new leaders hold their present standing until 2 p. m. Saturday when the voting will close for this week, there will be FIVE BADLY DISAPPOINTED TEACHERS when the list of candidates and the vote is published again in the BOSTON SUNDAY AMERICAN.

Five Leaders Dethroned.
The disappointed ones will be the teachers who have been holding first place and who, unless the vote changes again in the meantime, will find themselves next Sunday DETHRONED.
Candidates have been cautioned repeatedly against the danger of holding back ballots and subscription orders. It has been predicted frequently that DARK HORSES are likely to jump into the race at any moment, each of them with A LARGE VOTE.
The prediction has come true. The "dark horses" are beginning to show. They are swimming in at least five districts but

Therefore, ALL CANDIDATES IN THE CONTENT, 4 especially those who have been working hard, would do well to HUNTLE and get their ballots and subscriptions to the BOSTON AMERICAN office AT ONCE.
 There should be no delay.

List Eagerly Awaited.
 Thousands, not only in Massachusetts but throughout all New England, are watching anxiously for the next publication of the list, and every one of them will note carefully the changes in every voting district.

Candidates and their friends should not buy papers from outside dealers for the purpose of getting the coupons they contain.

Advantages of Sunday American Votes
Take advantage of the SUNDAY AMERICAN CAN special ballot. Read in subscription for the SUNDAY AMERICAN and get extra ballots. You can vote for as many candidates as you like at better than wholesale rates. You will give an idea of the subscription as you go.

Order thirty SUNDAY AMERICANS in advance and by paying $3.00 you will be able to vote for as many candidates as you like at the news stands and you will be entitled to 30 extra ballots.

Order twenty SUNDAY AMERICANS in advance by paying $2.00 in advance you will be able to vote for as many candidates as you like at the news stands and you will be entitled to 20 extra ballots.

Order ten SUNDAY AMERICANS and by paying $1.00 in advance you will be able to vote for as many candidates as you like at the news stands and you will be entitled to 10 extra ballots.

After they got back to their ball a messenger from Augustus Hennessy had not been received.

Mr. Hennessy telephoned that there was some mistake and that his foreman had exceeded his authority. He asked that the men be sent out to work at once. Business Agent Charles O. Whilden met Mr. H. J. Sawyer and had him sign an agreement to "go back all the men and recommend to the factory union. This was a victory. This factory has been an open shop," the men then went to work.

A protest have been filed with the business agents of the union against Hester and Brothers, who have retained three lawyers who refused to go out on strike with rest of the men employed in that factory. It is not believed that there will be any trouble, as the business agents will be asked to issue union cards to these men so they can feel it go at that.

ATTEMPT TO DYNAMITE NEW HOLYOKE BRIDGE

SIX SOLOISTS ENGAGED

Henry Russell, impresario of the new Boston Grand Opera Company, waiting for the Lenox to the New England Conservatory of Music this noon, accompanied by his cune and a reporter, and on the way he emphasized his opinion to the reporter with direct maneuvers of the cane, that he doesn't intend to knuckle to the European seal of musical approval in selecting his soloists for Boston opera.

"But," he said, "the wheel now stops. Mr. Russell stopped. The case stopped. The reporter stopped. The stoppage happened precisely in the middle of a crowd walking and the combination narrowly escaped those who were in a state of excitement whose driver doubtless had no much in his soul and was otherwise fit for 'treasons, stratagems and spoils.'"

Back with Empty Pockets.
 "Achieving the safety of the sidewalk," Mr. Russell resumed, "is not enough and will begin to turn the other way. American girls have been going to Europe for months, and they are coming back with empty pockets. Paris and Berlin and Milan are places where jealousy there. In many cases they have been forced to leave their purses behind."
 "It may be a great thing for an American singer to make a European reputation," he continued, "but it is a pity if she can do it in this country."
 "I am not going to go to Europe," the singer said, "because I have a reputation here. I am going to stay here and sing." There is an impression that I will go to Europe if they have been in Berlin."

born to obtain recognition. They must not think they will be paid more if they are not paid. They must be paid, or, if they can sing, they will be paid more if they come here first.

Boston Musically Sings.

Mr. Russell thinks there are too many musical societies in Boston, and not enough thanks for itself in it. So far as a rightful appreciation of genius is concerned, however, he thinks the city is doing very well.

There was passing Symphony Hall at the moment. The advance guard of Symphony, general patrons was assembled, waiting for the low-priced seats.

"Where are you waiting for the evening case," you might see that at where else but in Boston. Not in Providence, where the low-priced seats are plentiful for mere love of music. I do

With Mr. Russell at the Lenox is the famous Delfino Menotti from New York, who is to be stage director at the new opera house under construction on Lincoln Center. Director of the orchestra, Chorus Master Shavaglia also came over to see with Mr. Russell. The work of the orchestra, which is to be rehearsed will be begun immediately. The choruses will be gathered within next few weeks and chorus rehearsals be started in some convenient hall as soon as there is enough material to work on directly.

KIRKWOOD DEFEATS STONE BY ONE BIRD

At the Wellington traps yesterday afternoon Fred Stone of the "Red Mill" company gave an exhibition of fine shooting in 100-target special hand-pump match. gave President Horace Kirkwood of the association a smart brush. Stone missed three birds in the total card, but had taken second place, as Kirkwood had bird the best of it.

HOLYOKE, Oct. 18.—An attempt was made about midnight to dynamite the railroad bridge being constructed by the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad over the Jackson street underpass. Fifteen pounds of dynamite failed to explode.

Two watchmen, Shuman and Saurdich, are employed by the bridge company. One watchman is employed by the city while the bridge work is going on. These watchmen say that they saw no one approach the bridge, and the first indication that they had that an attempt was being made to destroy the structure was the explosion of a fulminating cap. They hurried to the place and found a small traveling bag ounds of dynamite. The position of the bag was such that had the dynamite exploded there would have been little left of the structure.

The warjunks will be armed hereafter.

PIERCE TAKES TOM, JR., AWAY FROM HIS WIFE

Objects to Association With Theatrical People; Boy Now at Topsfield.

NOW UNDER CARE OF AUNT

Tom Pierce has taken his young son away from Mrs. Pierce. Objects to his divorced wife's association with theatrical folk and its influence on their four-year-old son is the reason assigned by him for taking the child from Manchester, N. H., where Mrs. Pierce is living with Miss Adams, to his country house at Topsfield, N. H.

Mrs. Pierce, who is known as "Mrs. Tom Pierce," was divorced two years ago. The father, Topsfield resident, is being cared for by his aunt, Mr. Pierce's sister. The father himself is in Mexico.

According to friends, Mrs. Pierce agreed with her former husband when arranged to be made about the little boy that she should leave all duties upon him if she could get him out of her association with the theatrical folk.

When Mr. Pierce learned of this recently he made up his mind that he should have little Tom, Jr., in himself, however, and yesterday it was announced that Mrs. Pierce was to have the company of her child again. Mrs. Pierce's sister, who is in the city, joined him in this decision.

After C. Rogers before her marriage, and the marriage of the two families. The marriage seemed happy for a time, but the wife's theatrical friends soon brought about a separation and she was divorced.

TRAMP BUYS BIG HOTEL

COLORADO SPRING, Colo., Oct. 15.—P. C. Cole of Detroit, Mich., for twenty years the associate of tramps, has bought a Colorado Springs hotel and settled down. He left a wealthy home at sixteen years of age, and has tramped for the love of it ever since. He received a classical education, and as a youth was admitted to the Michigan bar. Recently his mother died, leaving him $30,000, with which he bought the hotel. He has made no social or other study of tramp life, but has lived it for its change of scene. His family has heard little from him since he left home.

NEW TELEPOST LINES OPEN

One thousand words a minute over a line which is at the same time being used by persons telephoning is the record claimed for the new Telepost lines opened by Mayor Hibbard last evening. The Boston news-breasted a message to Mayor Adams P. Hibbard of Portland, Me., who replied in turn. The Telepost, it is declared, will revolutionize the telegraph business, permitting to carry ten words to any part of the country for 10 cents. Perforated tapes on the telegraph transmitters, say an important part in the mechanism of the new line. The tape is punched with the letters of any person familiar with the keyboard of an ordinary typewriter. The company has offices at No. 61 Hanover street.

A cheerful disposition for ten cents per week. Sweet breath, no headache, no dullness, no blues. All that—and more—in a box of Cascarets.

Cascarets supply a natural need. They simply do what some foods will do; what fruits will do, if used in abundance; what exercise does. They cause the bowel muscles to act. Their effect is as natural and gentle as the same effect from food.

If we lived out-door, and ate whole wheat, green vegetables and fruits, we would never need Cascarets. But we don't exercise enough. We eat fine flour, much starch, and too little of fruit and green things. We live artificially, so we need an artificial laxative.

Cascarets give us, in concentrated form, one vital effect that we lack in rich food. Some people need them more frequently than others. It depends on your food, your drink and your exercise. But we all need them sometimes. The right way to take them is one Cascaret at a time. Take it just as soon as you need it. You can tell. Don't wait till night. Carry a box always with you. Ward off the dullness, the headaches. Keep yourself always at your best.

Cascarets are candy tablets. They are sold by all druggists, but never in bulk. Be sure to get the genuine, with CCC on every tablet. The price is 50 cents, 25 cents and 10 Cents per Box.

OUT OF WORK, SEEKS DEATH

Dependent at being unable to find employment, Lawrence Russell, fifty-five years old, attempted suicide early today by hanging himself with a razor and turning on the gas at his lodging, No. 100 Broadway, South Boston. He is at the City Hospital, and is not expected to live.

Catholic Church, Russell's landlady for several years, detected a strong odor of gas early today. She summoned a policeman, and the door was opened. Russell was found hanging from the gas pipe. The story, Russell is a single man. He was employed for several years as a blacksmith in a South Boston forge.

WINS AT POLLS, BUT MAY LOSE HIS LIFE

WINSTED, Ct., Oct. 15.—Patrick Condon won reelection to the office of first selectman of Bristol on October 5 by beating and defeating the other candidates. He is a public opponent, but his victory may turn the tide in the life of the town. The town, which has twice been operated by a single man, has been in the hands of a single man for several years.

DECLARES RICH EVERETT MAN BROKE UP HOME

Joseph E. Higgins Tells Why He Is Suing Solomon Shute for Alienation.

PLEADS WITH HIS WIFE

Joseph E. Higgins, a wealthy horse dealer of Boston's Ford avenue, Melrose, who is suing Solomon Shute, a wealthy real estate man of Broadway, Everett, there for shares with alienating his wife's affections, is broken-hearted over the affair. The suit, which was filed at last Tuesday by Mr. Higgins, through his lawyer, Henry B. Egan, asks damages of $10,000.

Mr. Higgins was a schoolboy twenty years old when her husband, then four years, fell in love with her and married her. This was fifteen years ago. Higgins worked hard to support his wife and finally went into the horse business, where, in a few years, he became well-to-do.

"Shute stopped in."

"It seemed that our life was one long dream until this man Shute stopped in," said Mr. Higgins to a BOSTON AMERICAN reporter. "We were married fifteen years ago, and have five handsome children. They are Edward, twelve; James, eleven; Lottie, seven; George, five, and Helen, two years old. We were very happy."

Mr. Higgins said he was a schoolboy twenty years old when her husband, then four years, fell in love with her and married her. This was fifteen years ago. Higgins worked hard to support his wife and finally went into the horse business, where, in a few years, he became well-to-do.

$50,000 THEFT BY BOOKKEEPER

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—A Wall street defalcation, involving more than $50,000, became known when expert accountants going over the books of the stock exchange firm of H. J. Fison & Company, No. 6 Wall street, and No. 89 Broadway, discovered a large shortage.

The shortage was traced to the firm of Henry L. Matlock, who died in his home in Elizabeth, N. J., on September 12. Matlock was a partner in the stock exchange firm of H. J. Fison & Company, and was also a partner in the stock exchange firm of H. J. Fison & Company, and was also a partner in the stock exchange firm of H. J. Fison & Company.

STRAUS ON SPEEDWAY.

Nathan Straus, who has been abroad for several months, recently returned to New York and is frequently seen on the golf way, driving some of his trotters.

WRIGHT GLIDES MOTORLESS

LE MANE, Oct. 16.—Wright made a daring experiment with his aeroplane last night. He ascended to a height of 1,000 feet and then stopped the engine. The aeroplane glided to the earth with the greatest ease and without any loss of speed.

MOTHER AND CHILD BURNED BY EXPLOSION.

BROCKTON, Oct. 16.—Mrs. Joseph M. Smith and her infant son were severely injured early today by the explosion of a gas stove in the room where they were sleeping.

STEAMSHIP IN COLLISION.

LIVERPOOL, Oct. 16.—The British steamer, "Hunt," which sailed from this port on the 12th inst., was in collision with the Italian steamer, "S. Maria," and returned yesterday after being damaged.

PIRATES BUSY IN CHILE PORTS

VICTORIA, B. C., Oct. 16.—Captain O'Callaghan, a representative of the German underwriters of Hamburg, who is here on a trip of inspection, recently investigated the losses of cargo at Chilean ports and says insurance has been increased from 14 per cent to 18 per cent, as a result of his report.

He mentioned an attack on the steamer "Santo" of the Pacific Steam Navigation Company in the harbor of Antofagasta, where the steamer was captured and the cargo was taken off and the cargo.

Heavy losses had also occurred at Iquique, where the steamer "S. Maria" was captured, and the cargo was taken off and the cargo.

BURN DEAD WIFE'S PICTURES

An odd feature of the will of the late Richard Sullivan, grandson of ex-Governor Sullivan of this State, just filed in the Probate Court, is a clause which states that the executor are to burn all the pictures of the testator's late wife.

The reason given is that it was the wish of Mr. Sullivan, the son of Mr. Sullivan, to burn all the pictures of his late wife, and the executor are to carry out his wish.

The executor are to carry out his wish, and the executor are to carry out his wish, and the executor are to carry out his wish, and the executor are to carry out his wish.

SOMERSET SEES POLICE CHIEF IN VAIN

Mayor Has Offered the Job to Four Men, and Every One Declined It.

PARKHURST WANTS TO QUIT

Nobody wants to be Somerset's new police chief. At least Mayor Charles G. Griffin has been unable to find a man who will take the job. He has offered it to four men and none of them would consider it. The Mayor says he has given up hope of getting a new chief and will resign the office of the city.

The position of chief of the Somerset police is a very important one. The Mayor has offered it to four men, and every one of them has declined it. The Mayor says he has given up hope of getting a new chief and will resign the office of the city.

SULLIVAN AND HART SURE TO MAKE TROUBLE

Hart will probably have about twenty pounds the best of the weight, but Kullivan offsets this by his cleverness. Both are anxious for a victory, owing to the great chances now offering in New York against such men as Kaufmann, O'Brien or McWay.

A new prelim added to the card yesterday will be between Tommy Rawson of East Boston and George Murray of Lynn.

DRIVERS TRAINING FOR CUP RACE

By J. C. KERRISON.

Nearly all of the drivers in the Vanderbilt cup race are rapidly getting their headquarters into shape around the twenty-five mile circuit. Some of them are already in the hands of the drivers.

RAID horsepower and type as Mr. Wherry's car, will be driven by Strickland, of the Grand Prix drivers, and a man will be a close rival to him, the second holder for the circuit.

One of the significant points of Michigan were the equipment of the Allen-Kingston, which was to victory in the first race with the Hamer; the Blue Armies, which were to win the second in his race, equalling the time of the first race. The Hamer was equipped with a new engine, which also equipped the little Blue, which was to win the third race. Shall Taggart's Kern Be Your Vice-President?

Who is Mr. Kern, whom Mr. Bryan has picked for Vice-President of the United States? From whose hands does he come? What has been his record?

The Denver convention, Bryan-controlled and Haskell-handled, named Mr. Kern by command of Mr. Bryan.

From whom did Mr. Bryan take him?

You have heard of the French Lick gambler, Mr. Thomas Taggart—Boss Taggart—the Charlie Murphy of Indiana. Mr. Taggart is one of those evil influences from which the public, weary of being ruled by Bosses ruled by Money, is TRYING TO BE FREED.

Aside from being a professional gambler, Mr. Taggart is a professional politician. He is a pouter of politics, and molds and manhandles legislatures—which are as clay—to suit the criminal needs of what criminal corporations are willing to pay for such potpourri.

The Standard Oil Company of Indiana, fined $28,000,000 by Judge Landis, is among his clients. The Big Four—a railroad alliance of the Vanderbilts, who were upon evidence furnished by this paper found guilty of rebating and fined $116,000 under their other alias, the New York Central—is also on the Taggart list.

For twenty years Mr. Kern has been on Mr. Taggart's staff. He is there to-day—the laundressman, the moustiquier, the lawyer of Mr. Taggart. Mr. Kern talks for Mr. Taggart in the papers, represents him in the courts when Mr. Taggart is arrested as a gambler. Mr. Kern makes his excuses to the judge.

If Mr. Taggart is assailed for evils accomplished about a legislature Mr. Kern protests the purity of his character, the nobility of his motives.

When Mr. Taggart ruled over Indianapolis as Mayor and graft ran riot, Mr. Kern was Mayor Taggart's city attorney.

Also, in all these sundry roles Mr. Kern makes and has made money. While what Mr. Kern does for Mr. Taggart cannot be called a labor of love, still the friendly ties between them are very, very close. Wherever goes Mr. Taggart, whether in politics or "business," there also goes Mr. Kern; and when Mr. Taggart becomes the "legislative agent" of the Big Four Mr. Kern is appointed its "attorney."

The latter fact transpired the other day when Mr. Kern dropped his pocketbook, which contained a Big Four pass.

Strange how our Kerns and our Archbishops, our Sibbys, our Forsakers and our Bullays are forever found carrying about passes and letters which proclaim their readiness to forever lose them into honest hands which make public these rascalities.

Above you have the picture of Mr. Taggart and a partial one of Mr. Kern. You may come by some further glimpse of the latter's portrait by reading what he says and thinks of Mr. Taggart. In a recent gambling litigation where Mr. Taggart was defendant Mr. Kern came to his patron's rescue in the following:

"The statements about Mr. Taggart have been unfair and outrageous. No man in public life has been more unjustly assailed than Mr. Taggart."

This was the Kern view of Mr. Taggart just after State Auditor Sherick had lost $9,800 at Mr. Taggart's French Lick gambling tables, embezzled the public money to meet the loss, and been sent to prison for twenty-one years for that embezzlement.

By the way, the copyrighted trade mark of Mr. Taggart's gambling hell is a "red devil," as witness his French Lick stationery and what alluring literature he puts out. That "red devil" Taggart trade mark ought to be made the emblem under which his followers might vote for Mr. Kern.

It was from Mr. Taggart Mr. Bryan took Mr. Kern. Upon that point behold the word of the deeply obligated Mr. Kern. Said Mr. Kern upon being nominated: "I owe my elevation to this great honor to Mr. Taggart, and to him I am indebted for my present position."

Mr. Bryan is opposed to gambling, BUT NOT TO GAMBLERS; to crime, but not to criminals; and he saw nothing in a Taggart emanation that should redound to the disadvantage of Mr. Kern.

At Mr. Taggart's suggestion, and thinking perhaps that the Vanderbilts, with their Big Four, might do something handsome for their attorney in the way of a campaign contribution, Mr. Bryan accepted Mr. Kern for the place next to his own on the ticket and sent his name to the convention with an emphatic "O. K.—W. J. B."

Just what Congo of politics lurks in the Kern-Taggart Vice-Presidential wordplay may only be guessed. It is hard to make out of what French Lick gambling use a Vice-President would be. The Big Four Vanderbilt reason stands forth much more clearly. The Kern Vice-Presidential value would become promptly apparent were a railway tie vote to occur in the Senate.

However, no matter what may be the Bryan or Taggart or railroad reason for wanting Mr. Kern, the great SOLE QUESTION for you, the public, to consider is: ARE THERE ANY REASONS, PUBLIC REASONS, WHY YOU YOURSELF SHOULD WANT HIM?

Some Thoughts on Society

By Winifred Black

AND now it's a woman's battle. She pretends and she makes believe. Well, there's nothing surprising in that.

What surprises me about society is not the fact that there are thieves in the upper circle, but the fact that there are any honest people in society at all.

Every time I am miserable enough to be dragged into society for some wretched reason or other I go home and wonder how on earth a society woman keeps from stealing, swearing, drinking more than is good for her, and breaking all the other commandments in the Decalogue.

If I had to lead the life of a gaily dressed and well-to-do society woman I should go out of my mind in a week from being bored to death.

And the whole structure of society is built on a foundation of malice, envy and lies. Society women, such people as they are, would poison if she heard them smiling at the tables of her

She pretends and she makes believe. Well, there's nothing surprising in that.

In the woman across the way a coarse, vulgar show, with the reputation which she would give her life on the witness stand of thieves in the upper circle, but the fact that there are any honest people in society at all.

She's a leader, and she must be flattered and made much of, at to matter what cost to self-respect or honest dignity. Who is that woman who is giving the lead?

The runaway wife of the big boy who played with wild money and was a little girl? She broke her husband's heart and made

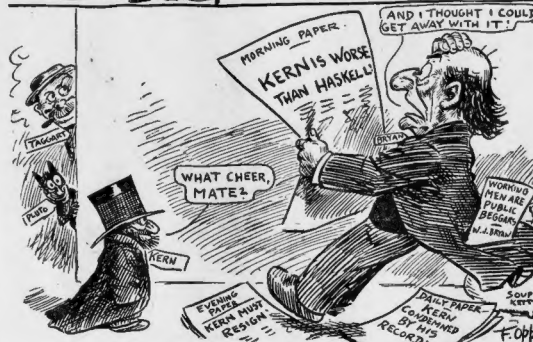

Never mind. Her hell is the smartest affair of the season—you must go out of your way to be nice to her or she might to death.

How can a woman who is taught to forget everything that she was taught of honor and principle and truth any honesty?

A woman's battle in society. What of it? It's a wonder every other society
